Dear Sirs,

On September 4th we wrote you concerning a Guarneri violin or other instruments in the estate of the late Miss Parlow.

Since we have not had a reply, it is possible that our letter did not reach you and we are therefore enclosing a copy herewith.

At your convenience we should like to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Sirs,

We have learned of the death of Miss Kathleen Parlow and we are writing at this time to ask that we be considered, should her Guarneri violin or other instruments which she may have owned, be placed on the market for sale.

We had discussed with Miss Parlow in the past the possibility of selling this instrument or of our outright purchase of it, but each time such discussion took place, her decision was to postpone the matter for later consideration since the instrument had a very personal meaning to her.

Sincerely,

REMBERT WURLITZER
